

DIPLOMA AND CERTIFICATE COURSES: APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Eligibility for the Certificate and Advanced Postgraduate Diploma in Psychodrama Psychotherapy

Applicants will demonstrate:

- A lively and enquiring mind.
- A capacity for critical reflection and self-directed learning.
- An ability to listen and respond with compassion and respect.
- Awareness of prejudice and the ability to respond openly to issues of race, gender, age, sexual preference, class, disability, ethnic, spiritual / religious and cultural difference, and diversity.
- Awareness and sensitivity in relation to the political, socio-cultural and religious / spiritual contexts of people's lives.
- In-depth self-reflection.
- Self-awareness and commitment to self-development.
- Applicants should have sufficient emotional competence and the internal resources necessary to engage with the demands of the training and the work of psychodrama / sociodrama.
- Evidence of a good command of written and spoken English (disability and equalities exceptions / adaptations to requirement will always apply).
- Have relevant experience of working with people in a responsible role
- Should be in a position to meet the practical, emotional and intellectual requirements of the course.
- Applicant's will not be discriminated against on grounds of race, gender, age, sexual preference, class, disability or ethnic, religious or cultural difference.
- Applicants should be in a position to meet the practical, emotional and intellectual requirements of the course.

Entry is at a postgraduate level of competence. This does not exclude those without a first degree. Relevant professional and life experience may be evidenced on application and considered as equivalent.

Applicants who meet the above eligibility criteria will be offered a face to face interview, (or in exceptional circumstances by Skype). At this point the course will be described in detail and there will be the opportunity for questions.

Those accepted will be issued with a written contract, dates of training, and annual reading lists. Relevant documents for the training course, including the up to date Handbook are accessible to successful candidates via the private online common room. Unsuccessful candidates will be informed in writing of the reasons for not being accepted.

How to Apply

To apply for the diploma or certificate courses at the London Centre for Psychodrama Group and Individual Psychotherapy please send the following information in an envelope marked confidential to the correspondence address below. The normal deadline for applications is the last week of May. Please back up your application with an email version to Anna and Jinnie

1. Name in Full
2. Address, telephone numbers and email addresses
3. Date and Place of birth
4. Nationality
5. Marital/ Relationship Status
6. Number and ages of children
7. Schools attended since 11, with dates
8. University and further education establishments attended
9. University degrees and other qualifications
10. Details of occupations since completing school
11. Current health, medical and psychological
12. Details of all previous treatment, medical and psychological
13. Name, addresses and email details of two referees, one personal and one professional

14. Reasons for application

15. Interests and activities other than work

16. Current personal situation

17. Give an account of significant experiences of your life and how you feel about them

To be sent with a processing fee of £75 (cheques payable to London Centre for Psychodrama) to: Anna Chesner, London Centre for Psychodrama, 25 Luralda Wharf, London E14 3BY

anna@londoncentreforpsychodrama.org (020 7515 6342) and jinnie@londoncentreforpsychodrama.org